

We don't have to share beliefs — just a planet.

An Annotated Bibliography of Conflict Resolution Resources

Books, Curricula, Videotapes, Simulations, Games

The Global Issues Resource Center fosters citizen responsibility through cultivation of a global perspective on critical issues affecting our planet and its people. The Center's special focus is on sources and management of conflict; the ongoing threats to global security; environmental dilemmas; and issues of diversity and multicultural understanding.

Located at the Eastern Campus of Cuyahoga Community College in Cleveland, Ohio, the Center serves educators, students and community leaders through custom-designed workshops, creative programming and its award-winning multimedia library collection of alternative learning resources.

How to Use the Global Issues Resource Center Library

Global Issues Resource Center Library Hours:

Monday-Friday 8:30 am to 5:00 pm
(Evenings or weekends by appointment)

Open to the public, the Center's award-winning library offers information focused on current issues. A unique multi-media collection of resources is accessible through CLEVNET, the Cleveland Public Library's online catalog and via the Internet at www.cpl.org.

The Library's holdings focus on issues of diversity, energy, environment, global education, conflict resolution, war and peace. Annotated bibliographies of these themes are also available. The collection features the most current and user-friendly materials for pragmatic use in classroom and community settings. The multi-media resources include:

- Books
- Curricula
- Periodicals
- Audio/Visual Materials
- Games/Simulations
- Resources from Other Organizations

Books, curricula and periodicals can be borrowed by visiting the Center. There is no charge for books.

Videotapes, games and simulations can be borrowed for free for any Cuyahoga Community College faculty, staff or student. Organizations outside of Tri-C, please contact the Center for lending policies.
