

Interested in what is REALLY going on in the world? And what You can do about it?
 ACM's PEACE STUDIES CLUB Presents PEACE WEEK
Because Peace is More Than Anti-War!

	On Monday, October 24th from 11-2p.m. Peace Week begins with a Labyrinth walk for peace. We ask that if you can not make it to the labyrinth on Monday that you take the time during the week to meditate on World Peace and what role you would be willing to play in accomplishing it. Peace can only begin on the inside.
ALL WEEK STUDENT CENTER Information tables about various aspects of peace and non-violence. Come check it out!	Monday, October 24th 7:30p.m. FSU Lane Univ. Center room 201 Public forum on the war in Iraq. Pro and con presentations will be offered from various faculty.
	Stolen Childhoods Tuesday October 25 2:00 p.m. College Theatre A documentary film narrated by Meryl Streep about the growing plague of global child labor that engulfs the lives of 246 million children today. In extraordinary footage of their working conditions, child slaves, bonded laborers and laboring poor children from eight countries (including the U.S.) tell their own stories.
Wednesday October 26th 11:00- presenters on food, animal welfare, peaceful parenting and more in Student Center. 2:00- Auditorium-panel discussion on food sources, chemical contamination, economics and options. Panelists with Food Co-op experience will be included.	Thursday October 27th 12:30-Auditorium- Fair Trade presentation. Come learn what Fair Trade is, how it affects you, and what you can do as an individual. 2-4:00-Fair Trade Faire-come browse items for sale, talk to vendors, explore options for bringing fair trade to our campus.
	Frontline: Is Walmart Good for America? Thursday October 27, 2005 7p.m. Room T-15 Two starkly contrasting images: one of empty storefronts in Circleville, Ohio; the other, a sea of high rises in the South China boomtown of Shenzhen. The connection between American job losses and soaring Chinese exports? Wal-Mart.

