

“Be a change agent on Campus”

HOW?

Join the Tri-C
Sustained
Dialogue Campus
Network (SDCN),
a student group that meets weekly on all campuses.
Begins Fall 2011.

WHAT IS SDCN?

- Student-run forum to explore and develop action plans to address critical issues to improve campus climate at all levels.
- Issues may include: social class, race and color, ethnicity, sex and gender, ability status, religion, and sexual orientation.
- Student moderators meet weekly with faculty and staff advisors.

ARE YOU...?

- Willing to share true thoughts and opinions
- Respectful toward different opinions
- Reliable
- Someone who wants to make positive change on the campus and in the community

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

- Develop conflict management skills transferable to all disciplines and highly valued by employers
- Opportunity to make positive change on campus and in the community
- Leadership training opportunities
- New friendships/connections
- Excellent resume builder

HOW DO I GET INVOLVED?

Contact Global Issues Resource Center at 216-987-2224 or e-mail Elizabeth.Wuerz@tri-c.edu